SAVE VALUABLE RESOURCES

All GROHE BauLine faucets are equipped with the GROHE EcoJoy technology. Thanks to a flow restrictor the water flow is limited up to 50% and thus saves valuable resources. An aerator enriches the water with air and ensures the same voluminous experience as with a conventional faucet.

INSTALLATION HAS NEVER BEEN SO EASY

Thanks to the practical GROHE FastFixation Plus system, the installation of the new kitchen faucet is particularly easy. With the pre-assembled fitting, installation is fast and completely tool-free.

PURE WATER ENJOYMENT

To add to the innovative functionality, all GROHE Bau kitchen faucets are equipped with the GROHE Zero technology. Dedicated inner waterways ensure that the water does not get in contact with lead and nickel within the faucet. Above that these inner waterways have no contact to the body material which result in a barrier between hot water and the external surface to avoid scalding on hot surfaces. Thus, extra safe, especially for households with children.
